

Bible Versions and the Preeminence of Christ, and other variations

This table compares various verses in the KJV, NIV, NASB, and NWT. The term "OMITTED" is used when either the phrase or word in question is omitted. This is just a small sample of over 200 verses.

Some people have objected to me comparing the NWT with the NIV and NASB. They complain that the NWT is an "obvious" corruption of Scripture on the part of the Jehovah's Witness cult. Instead of complaining about the comparison, they should be wondering why the NIV and NASB so frequently agree with the NWT.

I have noticed that in some cases, different editions may not treat a verse the same way. This table represents the verses as I have them in my printed editions (NIV 1984, NASB 1977, NWT 1984).

A note from Pastor Nuckolls

There is much more to the KJV only issue than these charts. This pamphlet is meant to introduce you to the KJV only argument. As the author mentioned on the front page. The version you have of the NIV, NASB, etc may not match with the quotes listed here, but regardless of which Authorized Version King James Bible you have the text is the same. (The New King James is not the same thing as an Authorized King James Bible). Each version attacks certain truths about God. One version attacks Christ's deity, Others remove the power of his blood. This is done by very subtle changes. There is a German proverb "Tell me with whom you go and I will tell you who you are". Zondervan is owned by HarperCollins. They publish the satanic bible.

These Bibles that the Christian book stores push on you are not innocent versions, they are meant to cause confusion

I first understood the importance of this when I was debating with a pastor from a church that denied that Christ is God. I pulled out all of the references I could think of that proved His deity. But the other pastor just responded by saying "...that verse is not in this version, or in this one. I believe your Bible is in error".

There is so much to learn on this topic. I pray this opens your eyes to this issue and encourages you to learn more about it. As Christians we should be people of the Bible and be able to defend it against those who would pervert it.
